RESOLUTION OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON, NEW YORK, REMOVING QUESTIONS OF CRIMINAL HISTORY FROM THE CITY OF KINGSTON
CIVIL SERVICE APPLICATION

Sponsored By: Laws & Rules/Cable Committee:

Aldermen: Will, Dawson, Carey, Schabot, Brown

WHEREAS, many employment applications, including the City of Kingston, include questions "Have you ever been convicted of any crime (felony or misdemeanor)?" and "Are you now under charges for any crime?"; and

WHEREAS, such questions often discourage rehabilitated individuals from seeking employment for fear that answering honestly will preclude the possibility of even being interviewed; and

WHEREAS, removing the questions from the employment application would not preclude the employer from asking in a job interview the questions above cited, nor would removing the question preclude the employer from conducting a background check on the individual; and

WHEREAS, when someone in the past has been convicted or pled guilty to a felony or misdemeanor, they should have the opportunity to demonstrate to the employer, once given the chance in an interview, that they are and have been law abiding and deserve consideration, if qualified, for the employment opportunity; and

WHEREAS, the United States as a result of its "War on Drugs" has one of the highest rates and levels of felony and misdemeanor convictions; and

WHEREAS, these convictions are often for nonviolent crimes; and

WHEREAS, returning persons convicted of felonies and misdemeanors to the workforce is an effective measure to prevent recidivism; and

WHEREAS, removing the questions cited above does not compromise the health, safety and welfare of the people of the City of Kingston, New York.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON, NEW YORK, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION-1. That the questions cited above shall be removed from the City of Kingston's employment application.

SECTION-2. Details of costs and procedure for application and interview background checks to be determined upon the passage of this resolution.

RESOLUTION OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON, NEW YORK,

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, IN THE STATE AND NATIONAL REGISTERS OF HISTORIC PLACES

Sponsored by: Laws & Rules/Cable Committee Aldermen: Will, Dawson,
Carey, Schabot, Brown

WHEREAS, 300 Flatbush Avenue, Kingston, New York, (Section/block/lot number 48.074-3-14.100) built circa 1872, is also known as the Kingston City Alms House; and

WHEREAS, Ulster County utilized the property until recently serving residents by operating the Ulster County Health Department from this location; and

WHEREAS, the Ulster County Legislature recognizes that the Kingston City Alms House symbolizes the dedication of local government to the compassion and care for those members of our community in need; and

WHEREAS, the Kingston City Alms House deserves to be recognized in an official capacity as having significance in the history and culture of the City of Kingston and of Ulster County; and

WHEREAS, preservation of historic buildings can attract tourism and enhance economic development; and

WHEREAS, 300 Flatbush Avenue, Kingston, New York, is currently owned by the Ulster County Economic Development Alliance, Inc.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON, NEW YORK, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. That the Common Council of the City of Kingston supports the consideration and inclusion of 300 Flatbush Avenue, Kingston, New York, in the State and National Registers of Historic Places.
